Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey delegation visit to International Institute for Population Sciences

A delegation team from Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey visited International Institute for Population Sciences - Mumbai on 13th November 2025. The delegation team led by Dr. George Leibowitz, Dean and Distinguished Professor, comprised Dr. Lia Nower, Associate Dean for Research & Distinguished Professor, Dr. Mohini Mukherjee, Assistant Vice President of Global Affairs, Rutgers Global, Mr. Vivek Mansukhani, Head IIE, India. The Office of the International Relations Cell hosted the visit of the delegation team. This visit was aimed at exploring potential collaborations.

The visit commenced with a warm welcome of the Rutgers University delegation team by Prof. Udaya Shankar Mishra, Dr. T. R. Dilip & A.R. (Academic).

Thereafter, Prof. D. A. Nagadeve, Director & Sr. Professor (Additional Charge) IIPS - Mumbai, welcomed the guests and shared pleasantries followed by the felicitation of the guests. An interactive session highlighting the purpose of the visit, emphasizing collaboration opportunities between the Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey and IIPS, was held involving the faculty and doctoral students of the Institute.

This interaction helped identifying common grounds for further engagement. A productive discussion on common areas of mutual interest led to identifying potential areas of cooperation, particularly in terms of academic exchange programs, research collaboration and innovation partnerships. Interaction sessions with the current students unfolded the possibilities of research & academic collaboration. The officials from Rutgers University expressed their keen interest in fostering collaborations with IIPS on a wide range of areas.

This maiden visit initiated a lot of optimism on either side to continue academic exchange and chalk out collaborative endeavours to take this association to the next level. Such endeavours can begin with student and faculty exchange that will be mutually beneficial and would result in joint research initiatives in future.

The event was concluded with vote of thanks and group photo Session.
