

Advertisement for Internship
South Asia Centre for Labour Mobility and Migrants (SALAM)
International Institute for Population Sciences (IIPS), Mumbai

Background

South Asia Centre for Labour Mobility and Migrants (SALAM) is a knowledge hub for labour migration supported by the UN organizations, namely ILO, IOM, and UN Women, in collaboration with:

1. Refugee and Migratory Movements Research Unit (RMMRU), Bangladesh,
2. Centre for the Study of Labour and Mobility (CESLAM) at Social Science Baha, Nepal,
3. Institute of Policy Studies of Sri Lanka (IPS), Sri Lanka,
4. Sustainable Development Policy Institute (SDPI), Pakistan,
5. International Institute for Population Sciences (IIPS), India.

The primary objectives of the knowledge hub are to address knowledge gaps on labour migration in the five South Asian countries – Bangladesh, India, Nepal, Pakistan, and Sri Lanka through conducting research and publication on labour migration, capacity building of students, young researchers, etc.

As part of the capacity-building initiatives on labour migration, the SALAM at IIPS, Mumbai, offers internships to students (Indian nationals) who have completed a master's degree (within the past two years)/pursuing a master's degree in any social science/Humanities subjects, Population Science/Demography, Geography, Public Health, Statistics, Mathematics, Sociology and Social Work to work on labour migration.

Location: International Institute for Population Sciences (IIPS), Mumbai

No. of positions: 4(Four)

Duration: Up to 3 months (April –June 2023)

Modality: Full time

Stipend: Interns will be paid a stipend of Rs. 6000/- per month per the IIPS rules. (Applicants are expected to make their living arrangements. Accommodation will not be provided.)

Roles and responsibilities: Under the guidance and supervision of the SALAM team at IIPS, the intern will support all the activities undertaken within the current Programme and Planning framework. The following section will describe the tasks that the intern is expected to contribute to.

- Supports the knowledge hub in its key activities
- Contribute towards writing a thematic paper on migration

Education requirements

Completed a master's degree (within the past two years)/Pursuing a master's degree in the following areas: social science/Humanities subjects, Population Science/Demography, Geography, Public Health, Statistics, Mathematics, Sociology and Social Work to work on labour migration.

- Have excellent academic performance as demonstrated by recent university or institution records.

General requirements/ Skills and Experience

To be considered for an internship with SALAM, applicants must meet the following general requirements:

- Proficient in English languages
- Effective communication skills
- Excellent use of MS Office packages
- Knowledge of qualitative and quantitative data analysis software (Stata, SPSS, Atlas.ti, NVivo, etc.)
- Excellent planning and organizing skills
- Demonstrate initiative, creativity, enthusiasm and motivation to learn
- Ability to quickly understand instructions, ask for clarification when needed, adapt and work independently to produce results on time
- Ability to work collaboratively with a team

Application Process:

Candidates who wish to apply for the internship may send their CV, a concept note of 2 pages (title for the proposed research paper containing objectives, data source and methods), along with a cover letter to salamproject@iipsindia.ac.in/ salamprojectiips@gmail.com .

The last date for receiving the application is 23rd March 2023

Remarks

The selection committee can relax the qualification in the case of deserving candidates. Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted and advanced to the next stage of the selection process. The selected candidates will be asked to join the SALAM center as interns from 1st April 2023.
