MISSION AND VISION OF THE INSTITUTE

Mission Statement

"The Institute will strive to be a centre of excellence on all population and relevant issues through high-quality education, teaching and research. This will be achieved by (a) creating competent professionals, (b) generating and disseminating scientific knowledge and evidence, (c) collaboration and exchange of knowledge, and (d) advocacy and awareness.

Vision Statement

"To position IIPS as a premier teaching and research institution in population sciences responsive to emerging national and global needs based on values of inclusion, sensitivity and rights protection."

DIRECTOR (ADDITIONAL CHARGE)

ABOUT THE INSTITUTE

The International Institute for Population Sciences (IIPS) Mumbai, formerly known as the Demographic Training and Research Centre (DTRC) till 1970, was established in July 1956 under the joint sponsorship of the Government of India, Sir Dorabji Tata Trust, and the United Nations. The Institute is under the administrative control of the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Government of India.

The Institute serves as a regional centre for Training and Research in Population Studies for the ESCAP region. The Institute was re-designated to its present title in 1985 to facilitate the expansion of its academic activities and was declared as a 'Deemed to be University' in August 14, 1985 under Section 3 of the UGC Act, 1956 by the Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India. This recognition has facilitated the award of degrees by the Institute itself and paved the way for further expansion of the Institute as an academic institution. The faculty members and the supporting staff belong to diverse interdisciplinary background with specialisation in some core areas of population sciences, trained in India and abroad.

The Institute is the hub of population and health related teaching and research in India, playing a vital role for planning and development of the country. During the past years, students from different countries of Asia and the Pacific region, Africa and North America have been trained at the Institute. The alumni of the Institute are occupying prestigious positions at reputed national and international organisations, universities, research institutes and non-governmental organisations.

The Institute offers the PDF programme for the academic year 2023-24. This program is designed to provide support and opportunities for young researchers who have completed their Ph.D.. The programme offers GoI fellowship, allowing research work without financial worries. Programme extend the opportunities such as i) to work closely with experienced IIPS faculties, ii) to collaborate with peers working in population studies/biostatistics and demography, iii) to engage with research community working on large-scale projects such as NFHS, LASI, GATS etc., and iv) to provide platform for contribution to the field of population studies.
