GOVERNANCE, LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT

6.1 - Institutional Vision and Leadership

6.1.1 - The institution has a clearly stated vision and mission which are reflected in its academic and administrative governance

The governance of the Institute is reflective of its vision and mission. They define its distinctive characteristics in terms of addressing the needs of students, society and government. It has been established with a vision to position itself as a premier teaching and research institution and be a centre of excellence on population, health and related issues. The involvement of leadership is achieved through well-defined systems and organisational structure consistent with the vision and mission. The Institute has various bodies for governance through development of policies, regulations and guidelines. Its bye-laws are the instruments through which all the academic, administrative and research activities are administered and monitored for effective implementation, thus ensuring quality and continuous improvement. The leadership takes all efforts to realize the goal of achieving the vision and mission of the Institute. The Director, along with the General Council, Executive Council, Standing Finance Committee, Academic Council and Board of Studies and Research are responsible for developing, implementing, improving participatory and decentralized management systems. Director is assisted by HoDs, faculty members, Registrar, Assistant Registrars, and Assistant Finance Officer. The faculty and staff members are involved at various levels by the Institute leadership in developing and implementing the management system.

6.1.2 - The effective leadership is reflected in various institutional practices such as decentralization and participative management

The Director and Senior Professor serves as the overall in-charge of the Institute, exercising general supervision and control over its affairs, and is responsible for implementing the decisions of all its authorities. The academic and administrative responsibilities are clearly decentralized to ensure the proper functioning of the Institute. Under the Director, administrative officers such as the Registrar-cum-CAO and three Assistant Registrars (Academic, Admin, and Finance) are responsible for the smooth operation of the Institute.

To provide educational leadership and effectively implement and monitor policies, regulations, and guidelines at various levels, the Institute decentralizes its administrative and academic responsibilities. Various committees and cells, with stakeholder representation, conduct academic and administrative functions and take necessary and timely actions to ensure the smooth running of teaching, learning, and research activities.

Academic activities are managed by the Heads of Departments, the Academic Section, the Examination Cell, and Course Coordinators. Additionally, the Director forms different committees, each consisting of a chairperson, member-secretary, and members, to
